

REFER TO RECORDS TO PROVE CHARGES

Much Documentary Evidence to Show Alleged Frauds by the Dry Fork Company.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] DANVILLE, VA., April 21.—More documentary evidence, tracking the sales and shipments of whiskey on which it is alleged that no tax had been paid, was introduced in the United States Court today in the trial of T. M. Angle, president and manager of the Dry Fork Distilling Company, charged with extensive frauds on the government. Witnesses embracing two high officials in the revenue service, two Danville saloon-keepers, the agent for the Southern Railway at Ringgold and the president of the Stevenson Distilling Company, were placed on the witness stand by the prosecution.

The purpose of the testimony introduced was to show that Angle, both in his own name and that of the Dry Fork Distilling Company, and in some instances under fictitious names, had shipped whiskey which was not recorded on the daily report sheet, and sworn statements made to the government.

The conclusion drawn from this by the government is that on the whiskey key which it is alleged he failed to record "Uncle Sam" was defrauded out of his assessment of $1.10 per gallon. This line of examination, it is expected, will continue for several days, and, according to the claim made by the government, before the trial ends it will be shown that Mr. Angle and the company which he headed either overlooked or failed to pay the revenue tax on hundreds of gallons of whiskey.

Had Lost His Records. A feature of the examination today was the statement of G. A. Miller, Danville saloon-keeper, that he had either lost or destroyed all of his books, checks, records, etc., showing his transactions with Mr. Angle and the Dry Fork Company. J. J. Drakesford, a revenue inspector, who has for some time been engaged in the examination of the books of the Dry Fork Company, and of the saloons to which the Dry Fork Company sold, was the first witness called today.

His evidence was of an expert nature, and he identified various accounts, vouchers, etc., which are now in the hands of the government.

L. S. Murphy, of the firm of Mayberry & Murphy, liquor dealers, of Danville, was called to the stand, and identified checks he had drawn in favor of Mr. Angle and the Dry Fork Company. The checks and records of Mr. Murphy, according to the calculation of government experts, show that Mayberry & Murphy purchased during the past several years 151 barrels of spirits from the Dry Fork Company, while records of the company show this to be eighty-nine barrels in excess of the amount reported to the government. The conclusion from this is that Uncle Sam was defrauded out of about $5,000 from the sales to Mayberry & Murphy.

Telltale Freight Bills. Freight bills of the Southern Railway showing receipts of whiskey by G. A. Miller, of Danville saloon-keeper, were identified by Mr. Miller. These bills show that he received 151 barrels of whiskey, which, it is claimed, is 75 barrels in excess of the amount on the books of the Dry Fork Distilling Company. It was brought out during the examination of Mr. Miller that he had destroyed his accounts showing the transactions, and that a considerable portion of the spirits had been shipped under fictitious names. Colonel Gates testified concerning the examination of the books of the Dry Fork Company and the saloons purchased by it.

He made a number of visits to this section during the period of the alleged frauds. He corroborated the statements made by Inspector Drakesford.

O. E. Staples, agent for the Southern Railway at Ringgold, testified that during the past several years he has received show that the Dry Fork Company, under various names, had shipped about eighty barrels of spirits to Danville. The whiskey had been hauled over the roads through the country to the station.

J. B. Stevenson, president of the Stevenson Liquor Company, at Dry Fork, was on the stand when court adjourned this afternoon. He was questioned as to purchases made from the Dry Fork Company.

CHURCH USED AS STABLE MAKES CLAIM FOR DAMAGES

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] SPOTSVILANIA, VA., April 21.—The vestry of Christ Episcopal Church here, in what is known as "St. George's Parish," have made preliminary steps towards filing a claim against the United States government for damages done to said church by the military soldiers in 1862. A company of cavalry occupied the church and greatly damaged the same by destroying the pulpit, chancel and window. At one time it was used as a stable for the horses of the Federal pickets.

Shiloh Church is sold.

Most of Members of Once Strong Church Had Joined Elsewhere.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] DRAKE'S BRANCH, VA., April 21.—One among the oldest Baptist churches in Appomattox Association, Shiloh, located about three and one-half miles east of Drake's Branch, was sold today at public auction in this place some days since, and bought by Captain Thomas Scott. The membership of this church had been gradually absorbed by the Drake's Branch Baptist Church, constituted in 1890, and when sold had only one or two members. At one time it had the largest membership of any church of any denomination in Charlotte county.

The colored boy, Naler, who broke into W. S. Gregory Sons & Company's store about a month since and was committed to jail, broke out of jail Friday night last and made his escape. He has been seen in this place since making his escape, and is doubtless around here now.

The most of the tobacco for this market has been sold. The quantity sold and the price received have been exceedingly gratifying. This town is gradually going forward. A large warehouse for the storage and sale of all kinds of farm implements and harvesting machinery has recently been completed. A large two-story brick storehouse will be built at once, and several handsome residences built during the summer.

The general impression prevails that a larger crop of tobacco will be planted this year than last.

INTEREST IN THE RACE FOR MAYOR

Close Fight Expected Between Mayor Jones and Dr. Pleasant.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] PETERSBURG, VA., April 21.—Much interest is taken in the outcome of the contest for the mayoralty, which is the only office for which there is a fight to be decided at the Democratic municipal primary next Thursday, all candidates for the Council and Board of Aldermen being unopposed. Supporters of the two candidates for the mayoralty, Mayor Jones and Dr. John M. Pleasant, are apparently confident of the victory of their respective leaders, but nevertheless the contest is so close that very little prophecy is heard from any source.

A big crowd of negroes gathered at the station-house this morning in anticipation of the trial of the many assault cases resulting from the riot at the Harrison Street Baptist Church, colored, last Tuesday night, but the audience was disappointed, as the hearing was continued until Saturday, May 2d.

Dr. Burton, who is attending the Rev. Eli Tarrt, the acting pastor, and Pleasant Webb, a deacon, who was hurt in the general fight, stated to the court that it would be unwise for either to appear in court this week, as Webb was probably internally injured, and Tarrt had a slight fracture of the skull. The other cases are those against eleven members of the anti-Tarrt faction, charged with assaulting Tarrt and Webb. They are represented by James M. Quicke, Jr., and W. R. McKenney, while R. B. Davis, Paul Pettit, Charles T. Lassiter and P. H. Drewry are counsel for Tarrt and Webb.

It is reported that the colored Republicans of Petersburg, opposing the "Lily Whites," will send delegates to the State convention in Richmond May 15th, and that the colored Republicans of the district will elect a contesting delegation to the national convention at Chicago.

The congregation of Grace Episcopal Church has elected the following vestrymen for the ensuing year: Dr. J. E. Moyler, Dr. Julian Beckwith, Robert W. Rainey, R. W. Pritchard, Sr., T. P. Knack, F. H. Heilmann, A. B. Wood, W. L. Zimmer, Sr., R. E. Lunsford, Waverly Wilkins, T. F. Parsons and George W. Harrison.

At St. Paul's Church the following vestrymen were elected: J. M. Mullen, W. H. Cuthbert, E. C. Kent, John D. Watkins, C. D. Witherspoon, E. G. Friend, George Mason, R. B. Wilcox, Jr., S. W. Venable, Charles H. Bowman, R. D. Gilliam and Charles T. Lassiter. Miss Blanche Collett and Mr. George Baxter, a well-known and popular young couple of the West End, left for Washington yesterday, accompanied by the bride's sister, Miss Maggie Collett, and were married in that city today.

RAILROAD CAR THIEF CAUGHT.

Throws Booty Into Swamp, Is Shot, Makes Escape, But Is Caught.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WILMINGTON, N. C., April 21.—Another railroad car thief came to grief yesterday, and is now not only languishing in jail, but suffering with a bullet wound in the left shoulder. The thief, a burly black, responding to the name of Mitchell Armstrong, tried to sell ten pairs of shoes at a country store five miles from the city; but the proprietor, a white man, there evoked the intelligence that the shoes were stolen, and the request to hold the thief. A burly black, a trucker in that vicinity, attempted to comply with the request, but the negro made off. Johnson pursued him, and just as the negro was about to plunge into a swamp shot him in the left shoulder. The negro, however, threw the stolen booty into the swamp and then escaped. But just as he was entering the city he was met by an officer from Wilmington, who, after chasing him over several fences and through back lots, captured him and landed him in jail.

With Armstrong's arrest, it is thought that another one of the gang of thieves that has been robbing the warehouses and cars of the Coast Line and Seaboard in this city is in the clutches of the law.

Frank A. Munsey on the Business and Political Situation

IN the May Number of Munsey's Magazine, Mr. Munsey has an article on the panic and the causes that brought it about. He says some things and says them straight from the shoulder. He hands it out good and hard to Wall Street and to the Grand Dukes who have been running things in this country with a high hand—running them as the Grand Dukes of Russia have run things over there. The title of the article is—

There isn't money enough in the world today to do the world's work

Mr. Munsey takes emphatic issue with Wall Street and the followers of Wall Street who hold the President responsible for the panic. It is not his purpose in the discussion to acquit Mr. Roosevelt of blame, but rather to get at the facts, as the facts are necessary to intelligent progress in the recovery of our business activities.

"If these facts," Mr. Munsey says, "acquit the President, he is, as a matter of common honesty, entitled to the acquittal." What we want to know, and should know, is the truth. And the basic purpose with Mr. Munsey has been to lay bare the truth.

Mr. Munsey in this article clears away a vast amount of the distorted and awfully befogged ideas about this financial crash. The article is clear, convincing, forceful. It is not a dry, ponderous handling of the subject, but is swift and dramatic in expression, with all the sweep and picturesqueness of a novel. You cannot afford to miss reading it. No one who has any interest in the vital things of the day can afford to miss reading it.
